Former WWF Wrestler & Westbrook Maine's "Scotty 2 Hotty"!

SOUTH PORTLAND, MAINE – (207) Entertainment is pleased to announce that Former WWF Wrestler and Westbrook Maine's very own "Scotty 2 Hotty" will be making an appearance during this year's "Harlem Superstars Charity Comedy Basketball Game" on Sunday, September 28 at the South Portland High School!

After growing up in the small town of Westbrook, Maine, Scotty has lived his dream of becoming a WWE Superstar. Wrestling for the WWE for nearly 16 years, Scotty became known as one of the most popular fan favorite characters in WWE history as "Scotty 2 Hotty". Scotty is probably best know for his unique finishing move, the worm.

The two time WWE Tag Team Champion and former Light Heavyweight Champion recently said in an interview, "I've had the opportunity to do things that I could only dream of, from wrestling around the world to performing in front of nearly 70,000 fans at Wrestle Mania." Though no longer with the WWE, Scotty still performs on a full time schedule around the world entertaining the fans with his unique style and high energy.

Now living in Orlando, Florida, Scotty is also involved with a number charities including Give Kids The World in Kissimmee, Florida. An organization that creates magical memories for children with life-threatening illnesses and their families. They provide accommodations, donated attractions tickets, meals and more for a week-long, cost-free fantasy vacation. "It is easily the most rewarding thing that I have ever done". "Being the theme park fanatic that I am, Give Kids The World is the perfect organization for me to work with."
