

January 2006

To whom it may concern:

We hired The Maine Hysterical Society for our Winter Entertainment Series here at Sugarloaf/USA. These evening events attract an unpredictable number of guests, from a varying demographic group, often depending on the weather and how hard people have skied during the day as well as the perceived "appeal" of the entertainers hired. I must say our guests (of all ages) came out of the woodwork for The Maine Hysterical Society Show! Emmitt Pickett, Sunny Day, and Russell Spurwink did not let them down...everyone left with deeper laugh lines than they arrived with!

I found Randy, Steve, and Barney a pleasure to work with, and flexible with all settings and arrangements. The press information and materials was of the highest quality and provided in a timely manner. All of our guests enjoyed their show tremendously; it was obvious on their faces as they watched them perform, and evident in their comments to organizers after the performance. A large audience group stayed after for questions and autographs; Russell, Emmitt, and Sunny tended to each admiring fan with patience and appreciation.

I have been working with entertainers for over fifteen years here at the resort, and I found The Maine Hysterical Society to be among the elite in terms of professionalism, quality of performance, and entertainment value. They have earned the highest of recommendations from me.

Sincerely,
