(207) Entertainment signs “Maine Hysterical Society”

(For Immediate Release)

South Portland, ME – March 1, 2009

This week (207) Entertainment signed the comedic trio known as the Maine Hysterical Society. Three of Maine's most entertaining comedic variety artists, actors, musicians and 'downeast' humorists, Randy Judkins, Barney Martin and Steve Underwood present a comedy variety show of original songs and parodies, hilarious Maine characters, 'wicked good' juggling, and the most hysterical sketches you'll ever see. Your face will hurt and your sides will ache... even the day after (...what we call a Maine 'Humor Hangover')!

“The Maine Hysterical Society is one of the most interactive and entertaining shows to emerge on the scene in many years, and their abilities to connect with audiences is truly remarkable,” noted Scott Jordan, President (207) Entertainment. “(207) will help connect these gifted performers to more audiences, with unrestricing their talent, and we're thrilled to welcome them to our team.”

You'll need a box full of tissues to wipe away the tears of laughter as Sunny, Emmitt and Russell continue to raise the bar of comedic entertainment excellence...Just three of many characters cooked up by the hysterically creative members of Maine's own Maine Hysterical Society.

For more information on their outstanding comedic entertainment performance or to book the Maine Hysterical Society please contact (207) Entertainment.
